

The South Eastern NSW Primary Health Network (PHN)

is seeking expressions of interest from community leaders to join our

Community Advisory Committee

The Organisation

COORDINARE, the South Eastern NSW Primary Health Network (PHN) is seeking expressions of interest from community leaders to join our Community Advisory Committee. Operational since 2015, COORDINARE is committed to supporting health care across our region to be person-centred, accessible, safe, and high quality. We aim to support care that is comprehensive, population oriented and coordinated across all parts of the health system. More information about the PHN is available here.

The Role

COORDINARE's Community Advisory Committee (CAC) provides expert advice to the Board and Executive to ensure decisions, investments and innovations are inclusive, culturally responsive, locally relevant and aligned to local community care experiences and needs. Information about the CAC can be found here.

The Council meets quarterly and the initial appointment is a three-year term. The current CAC Terms of Reference are available here.

Skills and Experience

We are seeking individuals with the suitable skills, special interest and networks in one or more of the following domains: youth, disability, healthy ageing, regional and rural health, and community education, to broaden and complement the existing skill set of our CAC members.

The successful individual will be able to contribute one or more of the following:

- Applied knowledge of community and consumer engagement methods;
- Willingness to guide and advise on cultural safety and responsiveness;
- Experience in research/academic expertise in a primary care related field;
- Links to strong community networks, for example service organisations, local councils, schools, aged care, not for profit entities within south eastern NSW;
- Community links to vulnerable populations and / or hard to access community groups;
- Skills in system support for enhancing consumer enablement and health literacy.

We welcome applications from people of Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander descent; those from culturally and linguistically diverse communities and emerging youth leaders.

Expressions of Interest remain open. Applicants will be contacted when positions become available.

If you would like to join us in this rewarding work, please complete the Expression of Interest form here, or contact Jade Webb on 0448 396 337 to discuss potential opportunities.