

Season schedule

Peers at the Table

Episode	What's on the table	Release date	Voices at the table
1. Rethinking recovery	What does recovery-oriented care actually look, feel and sound like?	1 Sep 2026	Neil Fraser Mark Thompson
2. Understanding peer work: The origins of a movement	Understanding the history behind the consumer movement and how it influences Peer work practice today.	1 Oct 2026	Jo Kain Mark Thompson
3. How to be a peer ally: Moving beyond endorsement	How can peer workers and allies build stronger partnerships?	1 Nov 2026	Jo Kain Mark Thompson
4. Allyship in action: A conversation between a Peer Worker and Peer Manager	An honest conversation about allyship, sharing power, and building trust across different roles and perspectives.	1 Dec 2026	Paul Townsley Tash Trompf
5. The role of culture in care: First Nations perspectives on peer work	Exploring how First Nations peer workers are helping shape more healing-centred approaches to care.	1 Feb 2027	Tash Trompf
6. Making peer work last: The ingredients of a thriving peer workforce	How do we build workplaces and organisational conditions that sustain peer roles?	1 Mar 2027	Neil Fraser Tash Trompf
7. What's next for peer work? A workforce coming of age	Where is the peer workforce heading and what will it take to get there?	1 Apr 2027	Jay Gardener Tim Heffernan